

DEMHIIST Annual Conference 2024 Proposal Submission Form

25-29 September 2024 in Tbilisi, Georgia

House Museums at the Crossroads: How Do We Empower Social Change?

A joint conference from DEMHIIST, ICOM MPR, Tbilisi Museums Union, and ICOM Georgia

Historic House Museums around the globe are guardians of historical and cultural legacies, local stories, and memories. However, we envision such institutions evolving to also play a vital role in catalysing social change in our rapidly changing world. How can house museums respond to the task of engaging with their communities? How do we partner and collaborate to drive transformative progress? What opportunities and threats do we face in forging common bonds and interests to empower social change?

Please click here for the full theme, call for papers and important notes conference 2024 . This inclusive conference welcomes your experience, whether you are a house museum professional or work in another related field no matter the size of your museum. Submit a proposal to share your work through our open call for papers, posters, workshops, and more! You do not need to be a member of ICOM or DEMHIIST to submit a proposal, but preference will be given to our members.

Deadline for proposal submission: April 25, 2024
